

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contacts:

Carrie Burns

Editor

Insurance Networking News

312-777-1366

carrie.burns@sourcemedia.com

Holli Gronset

Publisher

Insurance Networking News

847-428-0627

holli.gronset@sourcemedia.com

Insurance Networking News Releases Results of the 2010 Women in Insurance Leadership Awards Program

CHICAGO, IL--(June 28, 2010) - Insurance Networking News magazine, a SourceMedia publication, today released the results of its Women in Insurance Leadership (WIL) program, a special designation to honor female insurance executives who have made a significant impact on their businesses.

This year's six WIL winners are:

- Sallie Graves, Head of Insurance and Distributed Services IT, ING U.S. Insurance (Nominated by Oracle)
- Susan Gueli, Senior Vice President and CIO, Nationwide Financial (Nominated by CSC)
- Shannon McLaughlin, Director, Fulfillment Operations, Genworth Financial (Nominated by iPipeline)
- Sandra Parrillo, President and CEO, Providence Mutual Fire Insurance Co. (Nominated by iter8)
- Pat Rayl, 2nd Vice President, Technology Services, Aflac (Nominated by Aflac)
- Angelyn Scardino Treutel, Vice President/Treasurer, Treutel Insurance Agency (Nominated by ACORD, ACT, Safeco, Selective Insurance and Travelers)

Also receiving recognition are four Notable Achievers, who have successfully driven significant project and/or process improvements within their companies:

- Jill Bookman, CEO, American Collectors Insurance (Nominated by Aartrijk, on behalf of American Collectors Insurance)
- Regina Carter, Managing Director, Aon Risk Insurance Services West (Nominated by Aon Risk Insurance Services West)

- Dalia Dannenberg, Sr. Staff Services Specialist, Capitol Insurance (Nominated by OneShield)
- Susan Kostro, Senior Vice President, Specialty Casualty, Ironshore Inc. (Nominated by Torrance Co. on behalf of Ironshore Inc.)

"For five years, INN has been recognizing female leaders who positively affect critical processes within the IT and business environments of their organizations," said Carrie Burns, INN editor and WIL project manager. "We are pleased to add these 10 women from across the carrier, broker and agent communities to the WIL family."

Nominations were vetted by INN editors and narrowed down to a "WIL Top 10." Judges then ranked each candidate based on contribution to the institution's top and bottom lines, job complexity, corporate governance and ethics, and leadership and management skills. The final scores determined the winners and Notable Achievers. INN would like to thank the judges -- three of the award program's 2009 top six winners:

- Maureen Hegarty, VP, claims operations, Electric Insurance Co.
- Peggy Stewart, EVP & COO, Aon Risk Services Inc.
- Jane Tutoki, EVP and chief claims officer, Zurich in North America

The 2010 winners will be featured in the September/October 2010 issue of INN and will be recognized at INN's WIL Forum Sept. 26-27, 2010, in Chicago. The two-day conference, held in conjunction with the IASA Executive Edge conference, is dedicated to the professional development of women across the insurance and financial services sectors. For more information about the forum, visit <http://www.insurancenetworking.com/conferences/wi10/>.

About Insurance Networking News and SourceMedia, Inc.

Insurance Networking News (www.insurancenetworking.com) is a trusted source for information on how technology is being implemented to support insurers' strategic business objectives, providing insightful analysis of -- and case studies on -- how technology is being innovatively utilized to automate critical processes.

SourceMedia (www.sourcemedia.com), an Investcorp company, is the pre-eminent provider of timely and essential news, analysis, research, and insights for members of the financial services community, and the related fields of professional services and technology. SourceMedia offers its clients and subscribers professional publications, industry-standard data applications and in-depth seminars and conferences.