Ironshore Expands Wholesale Platform with Appointment of Dedicated Underwriters for Professional Specialty Lines

Ben Jones to Head Financial Lines, Andrew Russick to Lead MPL, E&O, Cyber

NEW YORK, New York, September 17, 2020 – Ironshore has expanded its platform dedicated to serving the wholesale specialty market by announcing the appointments of Ben Jones and Andrew Russick to two new positions within its professional and management liability division, IronPro. Jones will head IronPro's wholesale team focused on Financial Lines, and Russick will lead Miscellaneous Professional Lines (MPL), Cyber and Technology Errors & Omissions (E&O) liability business lines.

“Expanding our wholesale teams will better serve the needs of the wholesale brokerage community and provide enhanced value through increased service levels and custom solutions in this challenging market,” stated Thomas Leahy, President of IronPro. “Ben and Andrew have longstanding relationships with our wholesale broker partners and have a reputation for delivering solutions by understanding concerns and meeting coverage needs.”

Jones has more than 13 years of experience in Financial Lines underwriting. He joined IronPro at its inception in 2007 and has worked in IronPro's New York and Chicago offices. Most recently, he managed the South Central Region for IronPro.

Russick recently joined IronPro from Arch Insurance, where he oversaw a team providing various specialty E&O business lines, including specialized MPL programs for the wholesale market.

IronPro offers a suite of products and services underwriting Directors & Officers Liability, Employment Practices Liability and Fiduciary Liability and Fidelity Insurance, as well as Errors & Omissions Liability coverage for architects, engineers, lawyers and other professional sector markets.
