FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

IRONSHORE ANNOUNCES EXECUTIVE APPOINTMENTS IN LONDON-BASED INTERNATIONAL OPERATIONS

Hamilton, Bermuda, November 25, 2009 – Ironshore Inc. announced today the following changes to executive appointments for its London-based International operations, to take effect upon regulatory approval. Mark Wheeler has been appointed Chief Executive Officer of Ironshore International, responsible for directing business development out of London across its existing and planned global platform.

Executive appointments include:

- Justin Wash named Chief Financial Officer and Chief Operating Officer of Ironshore International
- Tim Glover to assume the position of Underwriting Director for Pembroke Managing Agency and Active Underwriter of Syndicate 4000 that writes Specialty Insurance worldwide across Casualty, Marine and Property lines
- Christopher Brown named Deputy Underwriter of Syndicate 4000
- David White named a Director of Ironshore Canada Limited

“Ironshore management appointments in London will enable us to harness the expansion opportunities across the company’s product lines on an international platform,” said Kevin Kelley, Ironshore’s Chief Executive Officer. “Since Ironshore acquired Pembroke just one year ago, Mark Wheeler and his team have and will continue to play a pivotal role for future growth in the London-based international operations.”

Mr. Wheeler and Mr. Wash will continue to serve on the Board of the Pembroke Managing Agency.

About Ironshore
