IRONSHORE ANNOUNCES KRISTIN MCMAHON NAMED HEAD, GLOBAL CLAIMS

New York, New York, November 22, 2017 - Ironshore Inc. has announced the appointment of Kristin McMahon as Head of Global Claims, effective immediately. She assumes the role from Mike Mitrovic following his recent departure from the company. In her new role, Ms. McMahon will have global responsibility for claims management oversight and litigation management services, reporting to Shaun E. Kelly, President of Ironshore Inc.

“We are pleased that Ms. McMahon will assume this important global leadership role. She has been a valued member of the Ironshore team since Ironshore’s inception,” said Mr. Kelly.

Ms. McMahon joined Ironshore in 2008 as the Chief Claims Officer for IronHealth and has held various roles since, including President of IronHealth’s liability and regulatory lines and most recently Head of US Claims. Prior to joining Ironshore, Ms. McMahon was a highly recognized industry legal expert, having been a partner with law firm Kerns, Frost & Pearlman, where she specialized in representing professional liability insurers and reinsurers in the U.S., Bermuda and London.
