FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

IRONSHORE NAMES KRISTIN D. MCMAHON TO HEAD U.S. CLAIMS

New York, New York, October 23, 2017 – Ironshore Inc. has named company executive Kristin D. McMahon, Esq. as Head of U.S. Claims, effective immediately. Prior to the appointment, Ms. McMahon served as Chief Claims Officer of IronHealth, the specialty healthcare unit, and more recently assumed underwriting oversight as President of IronHealth’s liability and regulatory lines. In the new role, she will be responsible for claims management oversight and litigation management services for all Ironshore specialty business lines within the U.S., including health, reporting to Mike Mitrovic, Head of Global Claims for Ironshore Inc.

Prior to joining Ironshore, Ms. McMahon was a highly recognized industry legal expert, having been a partner with law firm Kerns, Frost & Pearlman, where she specialized in representing professional liability insurers and reinsurers in the U.S., Bermuda and London.

“Ironshore claims management is an integrated business model, offering clients timely response with greater efficiencies,” said Mr. Mitrovic. “Kristin’s tenure with Ironshore is a testament to her expertise in recognizing the value of aligning claims professionals with members of the underwriting, actuarial and finance teams.”

Ironshore U.S. Claims services are provided for IronHealth, IronPro, Environmental, and Property & Casualty business lines.
