FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

IRONSHORE MERGERS & ACQUISITIONS UNIT
STREAMLINES PRODUCT FOR HEALTHCARE REGULATORY RISKS

New York, New York, June 28, 2017 – Ironshore’s Mergers & Acquisitions and Tax unit has updated its transactional liability product to address regulatory risks in the healthcare sector. Ironshore now offers a single limit and single retention coverage policy to meet client demand for streamlined liability coverage for healthcare transactions. Capacity limits of up to $100 million are available for transactional liability risks, with extended limits for select circumstances.

Ironshore’s M&A transactional liability coverage responds to breaches of representations and warranties to protect buyers in healthcare deals, including exposure related to the Federal False Claims Act, Stark Law, Anti-Kickback Statute, HIPAA/HITECH and other state-mandated healthcare laws. Comprehensive coverage for healthcare regulatory risk benefits insureds receiving a high percentage of revenue from government payers, including Medicare and Medicaid.

Ironshore’s M&A and Tax unit has leveraged the organizational expertise of IronHealth, the specialty healthcare unit, to underwrite healthcare transactions directly with a combined single limit agreement and retention level.

“Since introducing transactional liability coverage to the healthcare sector in 2015, the market for more easily accessible protection has matured, thereby demanding an updated solution,” said Navine Aggarwal, Head of Americas M&A.

“Together, in cooperation with IronHealth, we are now offering a single limit, one-retention product.”

Ironshore provides comprehensive, specialty M&A coverage for complex transactional risk throughout its global platform. Ironshore M&A lines include Representations and Warranties, Warranty & Indemnity, as well as Tax Liability programs. Ironshore's specialist production teams are located in New York, Miami, Toronto, London, Sydney, Singapore and Tokyo with multiple language proficiencies, including Mandarin

IronHealth product offerings address liability risk throughout the healthcare sector, including provider liability insurance, employer and provider stop loss cover, and HMO reinsurance.
