IRONSHORE SPECIALTY CASUALTY ADVANCES EXECUTIVES TO ASSUME NEW PRODUCT LINE RESPONSIBILITIES

Hamilton, Bermuda, February 27, 2017 – Ironshore Specialty Casualty executives Dawn Puro and Sonny Powers assume new product line responsibilities, effective immediately. Ms. Puro, Senior Vice President of Specialty Casualty and based in New York, has been named Product Line Manager for Public Entity lines. Mr. Powers, Vice President and Product Line Manager for Transportation and based in Boston, will now also serve in the capacity of Product Line Manager, General Casualty. Ms. Puro and Mr. Powers will work with senior management to oversee product development and distribution strategies to support the continued growth of their respective business portfolios, reporting to Kevin Whitehead, Executive Vice President and Chief Underwriting Officer, Specialty Casualty.

Ms. Puro has more than twenty years' experience dedicated to casualty markets with broad-based expertise in specialty product lines, including Product Liability, Transportation, Energy and Healthcare. Prior to joining Ironshore in 2009, she spent more than thirteen years with AIG in Casualty Underwriting, Management and Marketing roles.

Mr. Powers has served with the Ironshore Specialty Casualty unit since 2009, where he has held various production and management roles. Previously, his career spanned thirteen years as an underwriter of casualty lines, including General Casualty, Transportation and Products Liability.
