Do you worry that your clients will outgrow the capabilities of their healthcare liability insurer?

The combination of unrelenting financial pressure and healthcare reform has spurred tremendous change in the way healthcare providers and payors are organizing themselves in order to effectively deliver and finance care. Hospitals and physicians are increasingly coming together in one form or another. Formerly independent community hospitals are creating alliances, and larger hospitals are acquiring smaller ones, or merging with other like-size systems. Through all of this change, healthcare providers are taking on more financial risk as they move from “fee-for-service” to “fee-for-performance” reimbursement methodologies. The integration of the healthcare delivery model and the resulting coordination of services is blurring the traditional boundaries between and among those who provide and those who administer care. IronHealth understands that integrated delivery means integrated risk and is in a unique position to address these emerging risks, with unparalleled product offerings and expertise in virtually all areas of healthcare liability, employer and provider stop loss and HMO reinsurance.

Regulatory Products

Representations and Warranties Insurance Policy

During merger and acquisition negotiations, the buyer and seller often negotiate the scope and nature of the representations and warranties provided by the seller in the purchase and sale agreement. Contentious negotiations may result in deal delays or may entirely derail a transaction. Transferring risk to a third-party bridges the gap and allows parties to close deals with comfort and confidence. Representations and Warranties Insurance can protect the buyers and sellers involved in mergers and acquisitions from loss if inaccuracies in representations and warranties are made.

Healthcare is the most active M&A sector, comprising nearly 20% of all deals. However, until recently, Representations and Warranties Insurance has been largely unavailable in this space. Ironshore with its dedicated global team of M&A experts, and its innovative and responsive healthcare product suite, can offer tailored coverage for M&A transactions in the healthcare field.

Coverage highlights:

- Customized coverage for transactions with values from $50M to $1B
- Up to $50M in coverage is available with additional capacity provided on a case-by-case basis
- Policies are non-cancellable, ensuring coverage remains intact for the duration of potential liabilities
- Policy periods can either match or extend beyond the survival period in the purchase agreement
- Robust coverage for all representations via two separate insuring agreements: A) All non-healthcare representations and B) Healthcare regulatory representations
- Healthcare regulatory representations premium is typically 2% of the amount of insurance purchased, and all non-healthcare representations premium range is typically 2.5% to 4% of the amount of insurance purchased
- Retentions for each insuring agreement are typically between 1% to 3% of the transaction value, subject to diligence with cross-erosion available.

Medicare Reporting & Secondary Payer Act Liability

IronHealth created this first of its kind policy to provide protection from the complex reporting and compliance requirements of MMSEA (The Medicare, Medicaid and SCHIP Extension Act) Section 111 and MSPA (Medicare Secondary Payer Act).

This policy addresses:
- The “first party” risk and penalties from failing to report, or reporting inaccurately, under Section 111
- The “third party” risk and penalties from inaccurate reporting under Section 111 or failing to protect Medicare’s financial interests under MSPA

Sublimits available for:
- Medicare billing error liability
- Public Relations Expense Reimbursement
- Personal Information Expense Reimbursement
- Medical Payments Expense Reimbursement

$5M capacity

Medicare Set-Aside Liability Insurance

Medicare Set-Aside Arrangements (MSAs) are often a significant cost driver in the settlement of Workers’ Compensation claims. There is no requirement that the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS) approve MSAs, but many Workers’ Compensation carriers and self-insured employers do not want to take the risk that CMS might come back at some future time and allege that an MSA put in place without its approval was not sufficiently funded. So, in addition to satisfying state-specific requirements, these carriers and self-insured employers choose to submit MSA proposals to CMS for review and approval, which typically increases both the time required and costs involved.

IronHealth has developed a first-of-its kind Medicare Set-Aside Liability Insurance Policy that allows the carrier or employer to bypass the voluntary review process by addressing the concern that CMS may question the adequacy of an MSA amount at a later date.

- Occurrence coverage incepting the date of the Workers’ Compensation settlement
- Coverage available either for an individual MSA or for all of the MSAs a Workers’ Compensation carrier or self insured employer enters into in an annual period
- Coverage includes defense of the adequacy of the MSA amount as well as indemnity coverage and a sublimit for medical expenses incurred during the dispute process
- No requirement that a specific MSA vendor be utilized. We can review an MSA determination that has already been prepared or recommend an MSA amount in conjunction with underwriting the policy
- Ability to include additional insured coverage for a number of parties involved in the transaction
- Minimal exclusionary language
- Limits up $10M for a portfolio of MSAs

Custom Accounts and Asset Protection Solutions

Flexible solutions in an unconventional world

Not every insured is looking for standard, traditional risk transfer options. Some may require a creative solution not easily found. IronHealth’s Custom Accounts and Asset Protection Solutions unit specializes in non-traditional risk transfer solutions and in developing ways to address a specific need that other carriers cannot or will not consider.

By applying our underwriting expertise, analytical skills, and an innovative approach, we create financial solutions that are individually tailored to the customer’s needs and provide greater flexibility for managing the customer’s business. Examples of such solutions include, but are not limited to:

- Loss portfolio transfers
- Stop loss coverage for an insured’s self-insured retention
- Options to purchase insurance coverage or additional limits at a later date at preset terms, including potential coverage for existing claims
- Swing-rated, or “loss sensitive” arrangements that allow the client to pay premiums as losses are incurred, rather than up front as with traditional guaranteed cost coverage; the client thereby retains cash that would otherwise be paid out to a commercial carrier or captive
- Fronting arrangements
