Ironshore have designed a tailored product that addresses the modern day threat of physical violence and its associated risks to high net worth individuals and their families.

Recent events in the western world have highlighted the risks that can face anyone today, no matter who you are or where you live. Indeed, with the modern day use of social media and openly publicised information on the internet, the risk to high net worth individuals and the ones they love has increased markedly in the last 10 years.

Now, more than ever, it is important to have a combination of insurance coverage and professional crisis management service to pre-empt and respond to these risks. Whether you are at home, travelling on business or with your family on vacation you could be at risk.
